

Robbery

"Goodbye, mum. I'm going to Lucky Jewellery to buy a necklace for my best friend, Trixie. It is on sale," I told mum. "Fine, Alisha. It's her birthday, right?" Mum asked. "Right." I answered. Then I walked down the street to meet Hannah.

It was Trixie's birthday so Hannah and I decided to buy a silver necklace with an owl on it. Owl is Trixie's favourite animal. Her house is covered with owls.

We soon arrived at Lucky Jewellery. Having chosen the necklace and when we were about to pay for it, two sturdy men with a big sack dashed into the shop. Hannah and I quickly hid behind the counter, and saw one man getting out of a hairdryer and pointing it at the shop assistant's head while the other man started robbing the shop. I whispered to Hannah, "I think the shop assistants don't know that it's only a hairdryer. They're tricked." Hannah chuckled, "Yes. They're acting silly."

The two robbers in sunglasses robbed everything in the shop ---- even the necklace I was about to buy for Trixie. I became so angry that I ran up to the robbers and shouted, "Stupid thieves. It's a hairdryer that you're holding! Put those bags down at once!" They ignored me and started to flee. But I was determined to catch them so I ran with all my might.

I was a fast runner and luckily I caught one of the men while Hannah caught the other. We found a rope somewhere and tied them with it.

Then the police arrived. After telling them what we'd done, the shop assistant gave us the owl necklace for free, and guess what, we were on TV that night!
