

English
All The Way

My DaD is a wonderful man

- Amy Wan (L5) -

13th June 2008

My dad is a nice man who is tall and thin. My mother thinks he is very handsome. He is good at everything. He does everything best. There is nothing that will make him scared. He is really a wonderful man.

My dad is good at cooking. Every night my dad cooks for my family, and all dishes are different. Every ingredient in his hands will change into the most delicious food in the world. Everything tastes great and smells good. It is different from all the restaurants because they are cooked by my dad.

My dad knows all the road or street names in Hong Kong. Every time I ask him the location of a building, he is ready to give me a quick answer. One time, I wanted to go somewhere for lunch and my dad answered me quickly, telling me the way in detail. He told me the name of some streets, but I soon forgot about them all. But then, I do not need to worry about where a building is or how to get there because my dad can always show me the right way.

My dad always stays with me. Although sometimes it is too late or he is very tired, he still stays with me. After I have gone to secondary, I have too many things to study and I often sleep late. Every time my dad will accompany me till I am done with my studies and encourages me not to give up. I feel very proud because I have a great dad.

My knowledgeable dad cooks well, knows all the street and road names, offers me help whenever I need and accompanies me all the time.

My dad is a wonderful man.