

My Three Favourite Special Days of the Year

– Sonia Kong (L3) -

25th April 2008

My first favourite special day is my own birthday.

Each year my relatives celebrate it with me. I usually hold my birthday party at McDonald's, where we eat many BIG, BIG juicy hamburgers, French fries and sweet corn with high-calorie butter. They are yummy but not really too healthy, yet eating them once in a long while is all right. I like this day because my cousin can play with me for a long time.

Children's Day is my second

On that day my family will bring me as parks, Ocean Park, Disneyland, house. These public places are games are fun and interesting. I like this day because I can play happily with other children.

favourite special day. to play in places such toy shops and club spacious while their

My third most special day, which is also one of my favourites, is Mother's Day. I will give some carnations and a Mother's Day card to my mum. That day we will usually have buffet. There are many kinds of delicious food on the buffet table--sushi, salads, fish balls, beef steak, vegetables, prawns and many kinds of desserts. There are many drinks to choose from too, like milk, water, juices, milkshakes and coke...etc. I like Mother's Day because mum teaches me many things, including respect for others.

These three special days are all my favourites because they are such good fun!!

